Bleed

Kelvyn Colt

I don't love you anymore
I don't know you anymore
Where do I go to for some more?
I don't float in like before
I don't want you anymore
I don't know you anymore

You don't even know me anymore
You don't even hold me like before
You don't even call me anymore
You don't even love me anymore

You don't even know me anymore
You don't even hold me like before
I always give you what you want—

But what about me?
You was looking at me, but you can't see
Me
If you cut you off now, you gon' bleed
Bleed all over me
You gon' bleed all over me

I don't know you anymore
I don't want you anymore
I don't touch you anymore
I don't fuck you like before

I don't even know you anymore
You don't even call me back no more
You don't even want me around
I don't want you around

It's time to break this thing off
It's time to break free

You was looking at me, but you can't see
Me
If you cut you off now you gone bleed
Bleed all over me
You gon' bleed all over me

Bleed all over me
You was looking at me, but you can't see
Me
If you cut you off now you gone bleed
Bleed all over me
You gon' bleed all over me

Bleed all over me
Bleed all over me
Bleed all over me
Bleed all over me...
