

Let It Begin

Kemopetrol

Summertime was all you wanted.
A few sunny days and that's about it.
Some time to pass, no complications.
No questions asked, no accusations.
So come with me.
You just might feel.
A world that makes a summers day begin.
So come with me.
If you believe in something more than property.
Let it begin.
See through these eyes where there is only.
A state of mind inside by me.
Behind the lies your life's a playground.
Hidden inside for you to be found.
So come with me.
You just might feel.
A world that makes a summers day begin.
So come with me.
If you believe in something more than property.
Let it begin.
So come with me.
You just might feel.
A world that makes a summers day begin.
So come with me.
If you believe in something more than property.
Let it begin.
