

Lullaby

Kemuri

under the sun, under the rain when I'm dealing with a pain I always sing a song for my brain 'cause I know I'm the only one who can really feel the signs the sings from inside... from the core... sing a lullaby, sin lullaby!

Anxiety attacks everyone
I get lost in a world of abstract
where I really don't know what to do...
Nobody else but myself
can ease this pain by sing a song
can destroy the ugly thoughts...

Cry lullaby in a concrete world
Cry lullaby in a concrete world
Cry lullaby in a concrete world
Cry lullaby in a concrete world

inside of me, inside of you no matter what race, always a rapture and a grief still exist can not resist because this is how I am, I'm supposed to be but sometimes feel like I'm the only one then sing a lullaby, sing lullaby!

Impatience? what is this?
I know I should take a little rest but something makes me want to go
Nobody else but myself
can feel a exhaustion of the heart can save me from temptations

Anxiety attacks everyone
I get lost in a world of abstract
where I really don't know what to do...
Nobody else but myself
can ease this pain by sing a song
can destroy the ugly thoughts...

Cry lullaby in a concrete world
Cry lullaby in a concrete world
Cry lullaby in a concrete world
Cry lullaby in a concrete world
