

Try To Be Yourself

Kemuri

just trust yourself! Be tough, you'll be alright!
go with your style, you don't have to be the same try to find what's right for your life, try not to waste the chances come along, now go

you're here to make your dreams come true remember where you want to go
so always try to, try to be yourself just don't forget, it is wonderful to dream!

try to ask what you really need, try not to give you reasons to give up, now go

remember where you want to go
so always try to, try to be yourself

remember where you want to go
so always try to be yourself now

remember where you want to go
