

I Don't Want to See You Cry

Ken Boothe

I got to tell you goodbye babe,
but I don't want to see you cry babe,
I'm leaving you behind,
But it's just for a time,

It' no my way that's to be much far,
don't worry baby I won't break your heart,
I'm going to a faraway land,
I'm going to make live for me and you pressure understand

I got to tell you goodbye babe,
but I don't want to see you cry babe,
I'm leaving you behind,
But it's just for a time,

don't worry about me when I am gone, just care yourself to I'll return, don't preach yourself,
don't point to much,
I'll to me back with the magic touch, oohh

It' no my way that's to be much far,
don't worry baby I won't break your heart,
I'm going to a faraway land,
I'm going to make live for me and you pressure understand

I got to tell you goodbye babe,
but I don't want to see you cry babe,
I'm leaving you behind,
But it's just for a time...
