

Kryptonite

Ken Carson

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Huh, huh, huh, huh, huh
I fucked her on the first night
I had that lil' ho, huh, singin' like
She the performer and my dick the mic
This dick her kryptonite, I got her dickmatized
She want me to fuck her, I can tell by the look in her eyes
She say I'm the only thing from preventin' her from committin' suicide
I been on this journey before, baby, this ain't my first time (Though t it was my first time?)

Yeah, I can't lay up all day, bae, I gotta rock these shows
I can't lay up all day, baby, I gotta make these songs
Every time we link, I swear it's like we in the twilight zone
Every time we link, we feel like we the only two that exist
Every time we link, you're the experiment and I'm the scientist
Every time we link, I'm like, "Goddamn, I can't believe you mine"
I guess this what God sent when I told Him to send a sign
If everything's really perfect timing, then it's 'bout that time
Why you keep calling my line? Girl, you need to leave me alone
I'm with my bitch right now, ain't on what you on
I know what you want, baby girl, that's why I ain't answer the phone
I never blow up yo' phone 'cause there ain't nothin' I can do to make you answer
My girl strip for me, she my private dancer
I flew her to my crib 'cause she say she ain't never been to Atlanta
She asked why I keep my fire, said, "I'm like Thor with that hammer"
Don't try the mob, bitch, knocked off, blam a nigga right on camera
Balenci' sandals, Balenci' you, I put that b-b-b-b-blick right on you
If you not gang, uh, I'll fuck yo' bitch, we not cool
I'm renegade, yeah, I don't give a fuck 'bout no rules
To prove that we in love, let's go get matching tattoos
That's how you know I fuck with ya, yeah-yeah, we locked in ooh-ooh
(That's how you know I fuck with ya, yeah-yeah, we locked in ooh-ooh)

Huh, huh, huh, huh, huh
I fucked her on the first night
I had that lil' ho, huh, singin' like
She the performer and my dick the mic
