

Don't Cry

Ken Laszlo

Open your eyes, that won't kill you, it's not a wonder
Maybe it's just a love that's gone
I can't be right, do you get the feelings through your heart (into your heart, into your heart, into your heart?)
What do you think about it?
Do you think that is to hide your pride?
What are you doing about yourself?
Baby you can tell me, don't be so afraid and

Don't cry
Don't cry, this is my life
You have it better now, don't lose your mind
My baby you can feel me, maybe you can see me
Don't cry
Must wait forever to forget my eyes
You have it better now, don't lose your time
My baby you can feel me, maybe you can see me
Don't cry

Love in your eyes, look at the world, you've been a strong girl
Maybe you'll reach for your door
And I must believe that your kind of smile will take this heart
What do you think about it?
Do you think that is to hide your pride?
What are you doing about yourself?
Baby you can tell me, don't be so afraid and

Don't cry
Don't cry, this is my life
You have it better now, don't lose your mind
My baby you can feel me, maybe you can see me
Don't cry
Must wait forever to forget my eyes
You have it better now, don't lose your time
My baby you can feel me, maybe you can see me
Don't cry

What do you think about it?
