

Foolin' Around

Kendra Morris

Jumping Jack till falling down
Car wheels never touched the ground
Arms and legs, their body good
Till it falls apart like we're made of wood
Like we're falling down
Nothing ever happens when you ride the bus
'Cause we're looking out the windows wondering what the fuss
Hens and hubbies with their eyes closed like
They got nothing to believe even one last night
And you're praying real hard

Hey now now pull the wool on, eh
Hey now now pull the wool on, eh
Hey now now pull the wool on
Like a sweater up over your face
Hey now now who you foolin', eh
Hey now now who you foolin'
I'm just playing a part, playing a part
Playing playing playing a part

Digital ambassador of wonder and cheer
Everyone claiming it was quite a year
Melting like the devil, blew the candle on the cake
And dripping down the sides from another earthquake
Keep praying real hard

Hey now now pull the wool on, eh
Hey now now pull the wool on, eh
Hey now now pull the wool on
Like a sweater up over your face
Hey now now who you foolin', eh
Hey now now who you foolin'
I'm just playing a part, playing a part
Playing playing playing a part

Why you foolin' in your mind
Drink up time, pay to be wise
How we living
How we fooling
It's how we're living
Why we're fooling

Hey now now pull the wool on, eh
Hey now now pull the wool on, eh
Hey now now pull the wool on
Like a sweater up over your face
Hey now now who you foolin', eh
Hey now now who you foolin'
I'm just playing a part, playing a part
Playing playing playing a part

Have you ever
Seen the things
That you read about
Have you ever
Lived the life
That you write about

Nothing
As it seems
If you're just
Foolin' around
So pull the wool
Up off your face
Open those eyes

Have you ever
Dreamt beyond
What you see right now
Have you ever
Found a way
To live free and loud
No, nothing
As it seems
If you're just
Foolin' around
So pull the wool
Up off your face
Open those eyes