

Keep Walking

Kendra Morris

Keep walking, I see you
Don't wanna, don't wanna hear you
Always hanging round, wasting my time
Well, I think you better go (leave)

I know that it gets lonely
And I'm feeling a little rough
Round my edges, I'm just worn and I'm tired

But the sleep you'll lose
From what I gotta say to you
I'm finally gonna tell the truth
That I don't wanna be your love
I don't wanna be your love
Oh, I don't wanna be your love
I don't wanna be your love
I don't wanna be your love

Maybe there's a way that we
Can get along, maybe there's a way
We can find ourselves happy, still friends
Maybe there's a way when you
Are holding me I feel something
Different, maybe we make amends
Maybe in another world
You're the only one I follow
You lead me to someplace that's nice
But maybe you're still maybe
And mostly the probably
Thing is that you don't fit right

You hear that? It's silence
And it's louder than what you say
But this path that I choose
And what it's doing to me and to you
And what I got to do
I'm so sorry to say

But I don't wanna be your love
(I think that you know and it is just the way)
I don't wanna be your love
(I couldn't have it always [?])
No, I don't wanna be your love
([?] I'd be better off alone)
You could have told me what would be yesterday
I shouldn't have stayed, the time has the only way
Of making me feel right at home when everything is broken
No, I failed you to be, I failed you to be
I failed you to be that I can't be the only thing
When it's all, when it's all, when it's all, when it's all wrong
