I'd spend a lot more time in the pouring rain without an umbrel la

Covering my head

And I'd stood up to that bully when he pushed and called me nam es

But I was too afraid

And I'd a gone on and saw Elvis that night he came to town But mama said I couldn't

And I'd a went skinny dipping with Jenny Carson that time she d ared me to

But I didn't

Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different

I wished I'd a spent more time with my dad when he was alive Now I don't have the chance

I wish I had told my brother how much I loved him before he wen t off to war

But I just shook his hand

And I wish I had gone to church on Sunday morning when my grand ma begged me too

But I was afraid of God

And I wish I would've listened when they said Boy, you're gonna wish you hadn't

But I wouldn't

Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different

People say they wouldn't change a thing, even if they could Oh but I would

There was this red dress she wanted one time so bad she could t aste it

And I should've bought it, but I didn't

She wanted to paint our bedroom yellow and trim it blues and greens

But I wouldn't let her, wouldn't a hurt nuthin

She loved to be held and kissed and touched but I didn't do it Not nearly enough

And if I'd a known that dance was going to be our last dance I'd a asked that band to play on and on on and on

Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different

People say they wouldn't change a thing, even if they could Oh but I would

Oh whoa Oh I, I'd done a lot of things different Oh I, I'd done a lot of things

I	think	we've	all	do	a lot	of	things	different
