

The Rest of Your Life

Kenny Loggins

Walkin' on my own
Absolutely free
Solitary life
The only life for me

Midnight cafe
Dinner alone
Independent heart
Is all I've ever known

Oh I believe
I had no one to lose
And nobody fooled but me

Fire in the storm
Rainbow in the night
Lightning on the sea
Heaven in your eyes

Never before
The magic of night
It happened in my arms
Right before my eyes

Oh, now I believe
There's a God watchin' over me

From up here, I can see the rest of my life
It's got directions starting over
So hold me, it's destiny
'Cause from tonight I know
You know the rest of your life is mine
How long can I be this sure
Only for the rest of your life

Self-assured before
Had it figured out
All I didn't know
Is what it's all about

You walked into my world
Then it came alive
I never knew before
Why I survived

Oh, now I believe
There's a God watchin' over me

From up here, I can see the rest of my life
You're givin' me directions starting over
So hold me, it's destiny
'Cause from tonight I know
You know the rest of your life is mine

Whoa, oh whoa
Whoa, I know it's over
The past is over, ooh yeah

You can't go back to sleep
Once you've seen what you have seen
And know what you know about love

Over
Hold me, it's destiny
And from tonight I know
You know the rest of your life is mine
How long can I be this sure

How long
Oh, I love you baby
Never knew love before
Baby, I know you know
