

True Confessions

Kenny Loggins

I tried to tell you
But the words always came out wrong
You never knew it
But I loved you all along

Are we two worlds in collision?
Maybe it's time for you to listen to my

True confessions
My love, I'm givin' you
My true confessions
Show love when you hear my true confessions

Never meant to hurt you
I was lonely and she was so kind
One stolen moment
That I can't get off my mind

Let's end this silent suspicion
Baby, it's time for you to listen to my

True confessions
My love, I'm givin' you
My true confessions
Show love when you hear my true confessions

No more hiding the rage
Gotta let it out of this cage
So won't you show me you care?
Ooh baby, won't you share?
