Kenny Mason

Ayy, ayy
(COUPE)

American Pit
Fell for the money, I married the bitch
I know she faithful, I cherish the bitch
These niggas schemin' for cherries to pick
These niggas watchin' the pup, huh
I double dog dare you to diss
I doubled my profit and buried the chips
Double your offer, you scared I'ma dip
I ride with two Glocks in the whip
This shit'll get bloody like Marilyn, bitch
This shit'll get bloody like Carrie, lil' bitch
I got on your song and carried that bitch
I told you, "Boss up" 'cause I care
I was formin' the trail that led niggas here
Was born to scale, that's Ariel shit
It's borin' as hell in here, I'ma dip
We up at the motherfuckin' Shell
Woah, woah, woah
I wonder how high I can go
Before they start sayin' I offered my soul
Niggas is hatin', that's part of the growth
Ain't no complainin', that's part of the oath
No, we don't know where your pack went
Ain't no arrangement as far as I know, woah
We ain't gon' play with this shit
I got the power to stay in this bitch
I got a powerful K in the whip
I know it's higher-ups makin' the script
I got the higher-ups changin' the script
I got a partner that's slangin' the 'script
I know a hottie that's takin' the 'scripts
It shorten the time that it take her to strip
