Bad Enough

Kenny Rogers

Love is a long distance runner
And every step there is a chance to mend
When it hurts, you start to wonder
If you can make it to your second wind

Tonight I want it bad enough, bad enough
To keep on trying, you gotta want it bad enough
Bad enough, bad enough
To win at love, you gotta want it bad enough

Run and don't look back
Well you can't let it hurt and slow you down
Be strong, it won't be long
Before the thing you love will come around

You gotta want it bad enough, bad enough
To keep on trying, you gotta want it bad enough
Bad enough, bad enough
To win at love, you gotta want it bad enough

Bad enough
Bad enough

You gotta want it bad enough, bad enough
To keep on trying, you gotta want it bad enough
Bad enough, bad enough
To win at love, you gotta want it bad enough

Bad enough
Bad enough
