

Hard Lesson Learned

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

Green April eyes
Red sunset lips
The kind of beauty
A man can't resist
And I thought the last time
I'd never return
Oh baby, you're a hard lesson learned

My strength goes out the window
When I hear your voice
And I can't say no
I've got no choice
And I'm just a fool
As far as you're concerned
Oh baby, you're a hard lesson learned

And here I go again
Going back where I've already been
Every time you start calling
I'm flying, I'm falling
Only to crash and burn
Oh baby you're a hard lesson

So here I am
Hanging by a thread
There you are
Back in my head
And I'm still a fool
As far as you're concerned
Oh baby you're a hard lesson learned

And here I go again
Going back where I've already been
Every time you start calling
I'm flying, I'm falling
Only to crash and burn
Hey baby, you're a hard
Driving me crazy you're a hard
Hey baby, you're a hard lesson learned

Here I go again

You're a hard lesson learned

Here I go again

You're a hard lesson learned

Here I go again

You're a hard lesson learned
