

My Guitar Is Crying

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

Sky opens up rain falls down
Without your love such a lonesome sound
So I reach out for my only friend
Me and this six string all alone again

Tonight girl I'm barely surviving
I'm hurting there ain't no denying
The truth is I feel like I'm dying
Even my guitar is crying

Well I'd have a drink if I thought it would help
But I'd just wind up feeling sorry for myself
So I'll just get lost in this wood and wire
And keep turning up this old amplifier

Tonight girl I'm barely surviving
I'm hurting there ain't no denying
The truth is I feel like I'm dying
Even my guitar is crying

Tonight girl I'm barely surviving
I'm hurting there ain't no denying
The truth is I feel like I'm dying
Even my guitar is crying
Even my guitar is crying
