

Woman Like You

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

I ain't looking for a one time girl
I need a little more to light up my world
I want a woman like
I want a woman like you

The same old same old change the station
To a new kinda cool kinda conversation
I want a woman yeah
I want a woman like you

Well gimme that, gimme that sunshine stuff
Some of that summertime moonlight love
Looking so sweet with a badass attitude
Well shake it up, shake it up all night long
Make a southern man wanna put you in a song
The right kinda wrong that I wanna fall into
Oh I want a woman yeah, I want a woman like you

You got something that I can't explain
Set me on fire when you call my name
Losing my mind when you're shaking that thing
Make me wanna, make me wanna give you that ring

Well gimme that, gimme that sunshine stuffs
Some of that summertime moonlight love
Looking so sweet with a badass attitude
Well shake it up, shake it up all night long
Make a southern man wanna put you in a song
The right kinda wrong that I wanna fall into
Oh I want a woman yeah, I want a woman like you

You got the power, now you got the brains
Locking my heart all up in chains
I ain't never gonna be the same

Well gimme that, gimme that sunshine stuffs
Some of that summertime moonlight love
Looking so sweet with a badass attitude
Well shake it up, shake it up all night long
Make a southern man wanna put you in a song
The right kinda wrong that I wanna fall into
Oh I want a woman yeah, I want a woman like you
You got the power, now you got the brains
Locking my heart all up in chains
I ain't never gonna be the same

And I want a woman yeah, and I want a woman yeah
I want a woman yeah, I want a woman like you
