Little Light

Kensington

Going out on a weekday
Hoping on the collide
With a soul that
Knows a heart from a lie
When you show it
Sees a heart in the lie
That you show

I'll deny all the weak play
Not a style that I
Take any pride in
But the greed of my mind
Isn't going
All the greed of my mind
Isn't going away

Have some
But I'll be taking it all
Again
Yeah, I'll be taking it all
And on my way
And on my way

I wanted it all

Hey, I can see
A little light here
Know that I'm
Ready to fight
Oh, but I'll run
And I'll hide again
Hey, I can see
A little light there
Know I should
Get up and try
Oh, but I'm better at
Hiding it

Going out on a weekday
Knowing all of my pride
Will dissolve in
All the seeds of my mind
That are growing
Oh, the seed of my mind
Isn't going away

Have some
But I'll be taking it all
Again
Yeah, I'll be taking it all
And on my way
And on my way

I wanted it all

Hey, I can see

Know that I'm
Ready to fight
Oh, but I'll run
And I'll hide again
Hey, I can see
A little light there
Know I should
Get up and try
Hiding it

When I'll wait
For the dueling to get
A little cold again
Then no one but I
Will know me
When all of my light ends
