

Deserve

KenTheMan

I don't deserve this
You don't deserve me
I don't deserve, you don't deserve, I'm way too good for you
I'm way too good for you
You don't deserve me
I'm way too good for you
You don't deserve me

Nah I'm finished, you can cut it out
Don't even touch me, lock the door, I'm bout to let me out
I been holdin' back so now I'm finally lettin' out
I been doubtin' us, nigga, don't try to fix it now
All them sorrys is so damagin'
I don't see how all your ex bitches managed it
I thought maybe we can be together
See the world, get a bag in Tahiti weather

I mean, this was just a thought but reality done settled in
You was the best, now I can't even see you as a friend
If we continue all this arguin' it will never end
Drifted apart, I thought we'd never see a fuckin' end
We went from fuckin' in the bathroom to fuckin' up the vibe
Soon as I find the little pieces like I catch you in a lie
And I had to turn my head before you water up my eyes
This shit be fuckin' with my pride, nigga

My daddy told me not to trust you niggas
But I don't tell 'em, I just show them niggas
I was always taught to hoe you niggas
And even if you layin wit 'em, you don't know them niggas
Damn, that's a bad dude
And the bitch he fuckin' wit is down bad too
Don't let me catch ya'll out either
'Cause I'll run up on a ho like a mild fever

I don't deserve this
You don't deserve me
I don't deserve, you don't deserve, I'm way too good for you
I'm way too good for you
You don't deserve me
I'm way too good for you
You don't deserve me

I thought you knew I was a clown leaver
I don't never need 'em, I don't never need 'em
I know what I'm worth and I know that I'm different
I know that I can find somebody that'll treat me different
You took advantage of me, big mistake
Now I'm gon' make that shit my business to find your replacement
Someone better than you in every way
Someone invested in everything that I fuckin' say

But in the mean time, I'll focus on myself
Stack a lot of money, get invested in my wealth
Go up on that ass 'cause I'm the one you should have kept
I been down for you, when you had it you just slept
Stupid ass nigga

All up in my phone like I'mma doofus ass nigga
I wanna text you back but I'd be stupid as ya ass when you cheated
On my ass with a bitch that wouldn't last, you old foolish ass nigga

I can't believe this what it came to
For one night, I can't believe some pussy changed you
So I'm hopin' that bitch was worth it
Riskin' all of this time for a bitch that ain't got a purpose
Everything done below but in due time it'll come to surface
I could give you a chance but my trust issues done worsened, nigga
And all of this shit is your fault
You was never supposed to hurt me, this is your loss

I don't deserve this
You don't deserve me
I don't deserve, you don't deserve, I'm way too good for you
I'm way too good for you
You don't deserve me
I'm way too good for you
You don't deserve me

How you the one that cheated but you mad at me?
You just confused at how I handle niggas savagely
He said I had 'em lined up and he probably right
What you think I'm doin', nigga, when you slept around at night?
Layin' down pressed, hopin' that you'll be comin' home soon
You must have forgot, I've been that bitch before I got you
How you think I got you?
Sittin' in the house?

Nah, I was gettin' head while you was in them bitches mouths
I ain't even got to spit game
Tell 'em come through, just made 'em leave before you came
Lemme give you new games
You know, your nigga cheatin' you can handle it in a new way
Play it out smart so you can save it for a new day
First things first, you can pull the bitch he layin' with Damn, he should have know I'm not the one he should be playin' with

Bitch, I'm KenTheMan, what you thought I was just sayin this'?
I can do it all, I even pulled niggas you hangin' with Call his ass home, say you got him somethin' special
Lead him to the room, the shit is lit up off some petals
Smilin' all cheeky, nigga think he won a medal
But when he come inside he see his nigga and he felt it
That's when you and his side bitch stepped in
Dressed all cute, we both was fuckin' with his best friend

Only God can help him
Now he thinkin' bout all his promises and how he should have kept them nigga you deserve that
Bitch ass nigga
