

Last Warning

Keri Noble

I know I sounded crazy on the phone
Telling you to meet me here, come alone
And no it cannot wait 'til the morning

Left him lying quiet in our bed
All the thoughts I've tried to hide, he's read
Now it's clear to me, what's ahead.

And I can't go home 'til I make this known

Goodbye my love
I'm leaving, in the morning
Goodbye my love
This is our last warning
This is the end

Lookin' back on all of this time
Wanting you more than I wanted to be right
Never thinkin' 'bout, the price
And I can't go home 'til I make this known

Goodbye my love
I'm leaving, in the morning
Goodbye my love
This is our last warning
This is the end
