

Better

Kerli

Watch me as I'm getting up
And see me shaking up the dust
'Cause I'm starting again
Didn't think that i could
I didn't think so, did you?

I cover up the scars of love
I dry my tears I've cried enough
And I know as it ends
That I wouldn't undo
Anything we've been through

'Cause I see
To fly you need to fall
And I have won the war
The battles that were lost, now don't matter

I won't blame the world
'Cause every time it hurts
When I went through the worst
I came out better

Better, better, better, better
Better, better, better, better
Better, better, better, better
Better, better
I came out better
I came out better
I came out better

Watch me as I'm letting go
Everything I used to know
And I'll never look back
Didn't think that I could
Didn't think so, did you?

Memories stuck on repeat
Stopping as I set them free
And I know as it ends
That I wouldn't undo
Anything we've been through

'Cause I see
To fly you need to fall
And I have won the war
The battles that were lost, now don't matter

I won't blame the world
'Cause every time it hurts
When I went through the worst
I came out better

Better, better, better, better
Better, better, better, better
Better, better, better, better
Better, better

I came out better
I came out better
I came out better
I came out better
