

Where My Heart Belongs

Kerrie Roberts

I will not build on sinking sand
I will not chase each passing wind
My hope is Jesus, nothing less
I know Your love will never rest

The earth may shake and darkness fall
I may not understand it all
You are my hope and nothing less
I'm leaning on Your faithfulness
I'm leaning on Your faithfulness

I'm standing where my heart belongs
The solid rock, this is my home
My soul will sing and through it all
You are where my heart belongs
You are where my heart belongs

Your promise is unshakeable
The anchor of Your word will hold
And Your love won't let me drift away
I'm clinging to no other name
I'm clinging to no other name

I'm standing where my heart belongs
The solid rock, this is my home
My soul will sing and through it all
You are where my heart belongs
You are where

I belong in Your presence
I was made for Your love
I belong in Your presence
I belong, I'm at home

Where my heart belongs
The solid rock, this is my home
My soul will sing and through it all
You are where my heart belongs
You are where my heart belongs
