

Everything I Hate About You

Kerry King

Let me set the scene
Sadistic fantasy
A vision filled with fury and with spite
Back against the wall
My victory you fall
You'll always be the victim in this fight

I can theorize
A million ways to die
My bloodlust pacifies my rage
I will terminate
I will eradicate
Annihilate turn the page on everything I hate about you

Everything I hate about you

Nothing you can do
They all abandon you
A sheltered life driven by the swine
Never show remorse
Evil is the source
Wretched is the meaning of divine

I can visualize
A million ways to die
My bloodlust pacifies my rage
I will terminate
I will eradicate
I'll annihilate, turn the page on everything I hate about you

Everything I hate about you

Everything I hate
About you
