

From Hell I Rise

Kerry King

Preaching faith is selling lies
Religion's plague just never dies
I've shown before everyone knows
That I'm the one God can't control

Avoid me father for I am sin
I live for the day of your ruin
No hope, no faith, no binding ties
I will reign in God's demise

From Hell
Through fire I will rise
Until blood rains from the skies

I've shown you things you can't ignore
With blind eyes shun the truth with scorn
If angels fell from burning skies
On deaf ears fall their dying cries

Avoid me father for I am sin
I live for the day of your ruin
Your doctrines judge you where you stand
I will deal your final hand

From Hell
Through fire I will rise
Until blood rains down
From Hell I rise
To torch the skies
From Hell
I watch religion die

This world's not without sin
That's why I always win
To torture and entice
To kill and sacrifice

Avoid me father for I am sin
I live for the day of your ruin
No faith, no hope, no binding ties
I will reign in God's demise

From Hell
Through fire I will rise
Until blood rains down
From Hell I rise
To torch the skies
From Hell
I watch religion die
I watch it die

Come watch it with me
