

Shrapnel

Kerry King

Down the road I'm told
Certain death is sold
We all must pay the price
I can't
Unsee
The day
My friends died

Limitless human flesh
Scattered for all to see
Thrown away life decays
Stench surrounding me
Climb the walls purely false
Hatred uncontrolled
Irrelevant sentiment
For all that won't go home

I guarantee on death I feed
And my weapons don't care who they kill
Nothing is won until the killing's done
And my blade won't care whose blood is spilled

Silently I grieve
In vengeance I believe
Memories won't suffice
Never Forget
The day
They all died

I'm insane dealing pain
Taking every soul
Human shield starts to feel
Swinging of control
Suffocate, strangulate
Tightening of the wire
Raining death, final breath
Adrenaline on fire

I guarantee on death I feed
And my weapons don't care who they kill
Nothing is won until the killing's done
And my blade won't care whose blood is spilled

King of war I want more
Addicted to the strife
Politicized, criticized
Killing is my life
Renegade death parade
Blood will quench the dirt
Back on the road that I was told
Forever feed the earth

I guarantee on death I feed
And my weapons don't care who they kill
