

Chasing Thunder

Ke$ha

I heard a story years ago
From my grandmama, rest her soul
About a girl who'd never grow up, never grow old

Oh she was wild, she was free
Faced the fire fearlessly
That's the spirit, that's the ghost inside of me

Baby, I'm not a rose, I'm a wild flower
Out of all of them, you chose one who'll run free forever
It doesn't mean I'm lost, I just like to wander
Got that gypsy blood, always chasing thunder

Always chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Got the gypsy blood, always chasing thunder

(Ooh ooh)
(Ooh ooh) Got the gypsy blood, always chasing thunder

I remember when twenty-five
Was forever in my mind
I wish I could go back in time
(I would if I could, but I can't)

Told myself that life flies by
We all live and we all die
Keep the sun and moon and stars, girl, in your eyes

Baby, I'm not a rose, I'm a wild flower
Out of all of them, you chose one who'll run free forever
It doesn't mean I'm lost, I just like to wander
Got the gypsy blood, always chasing thunder

Always chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Chasing thunder
Always chasing thunder
Got the gypsy blood, always chasing thunder

(Ooh ooh)
(Ooh ooh) Got the gypsy blood, always chasing thunder

All the beauty and the bad
Makes me happy, makes me sad
'Cause I know that nothing lasts forever
I'll keep running, chasing thunder

All the beauty and the bad
Makes me happy, makes me sad
'Cause I know that nothing lasts forever

I'll keep running, chasing thunder

Ooh

Oh

Baby, I'm not a rose, I'm a wild flower

So I'm gonna keep on chasing thunder

Chasing thunder
