

Rich, White, Straight Men

Ke$ha

You could ride a unicorn to school
And if you fall off you'd have healthcare
(No you don't)
And if you finish school you'd go to college for free
That makes sense and that's fair
(No it's not)
And if you were a lady
Then you own your lady parts
Just like a man goes to a dealership
And then he owns a car

Vroom vroom
Fuck you (Fuck you)

What if life as we knew it was over?
Guess what? God is a woman, I know her

What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)
What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)

If you're from another land then come here
You won't have to climb a wall
(Yes you will!)
And if you are a boy who loves a boy
You'll get a wedding cake and all
(Not in Colorado!)
And if you are a lady and you do your lady work
Then you will make as many dollars as the boys
Not just two thirds

Cha-ching
Fuck you (Fuck you)

What if life as we knew it was over?
Guess what? God is a woman, I know her

What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)
What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)

Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wish the world was different
Where who you love and who you are
Was nobody's fucking business

What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)
What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?

(Hahahahahahahahaha)
What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)
What if rich, white, straight men
Didn't rule the world anymore?
(Hahahahahahahahaha)

What if...
