

THE ONE.

Ke$ha

Turn on the lights, look at me shine
There's the feelin' I've been searchin' for
All of my life, I've been run-run-runnin' to find it
I run 'til I die, but there is a line
And you were tryna own what isn't yours
You had a diamond, you had a one-one-one of a kind, yeah

My heart got used to breakin'
I should thank you, baby
Found what I've been chasin'
Found the one I've waited for

I'm comin' home tonight
It's been a long road to say goodbye
And now I know that it can't be broken
I finally found the love (I found the love)
Baby, I'm the one

I am the one (Oh)
The one, the one, the one, the one (Oh)
I am the one (Oh)
The one, the one, the one, the one (Oh)
I am the one

Look at the rest, of course you're obsessed
You can leave the keys outside the door
I'll be out drivin', chasin' the lightnin', woah

Love me or you hate me
I'm iconic, baby
I'm what I've been chasin'
I'm the one I've waited for

I'm comin' home tonight
It's been a long road to say goodbye
And now I know that it can't be broken
I finally found the love (I found the love)
Baby, I'm the one

I am the one (Oh)
The one, the one, the one, the one (Oh)
I am the one (Oh)
The one, the one, the one, the one (Oh)
I am the one

Don't got a rear view, I don't look back
Hold onto faith like a holier man
I keep on dancing through the quicksand
Now I know that I'm the one
That I run to one that I save
I am the savior, I am the saved
I got a soul nobody can break
Now I know that I'm the one

I'm comin' home tonight
It's been a long road to say goodbye (To say goodbye)
And now I know that it can't be broken

I finally found the love (I found the love)
Baby, I'm the one

I am the one (Oh)
The one, the one, the one, the one (Oh)
I am the one (Oh)
The one, the one, the one, the one (Oh)
I am the one
