

Amen

Keshi

Uh, uh

Uh

Sign of the times

I don't pray to God that's a weakness

I been playing God in arenas

I was doing better 'til I wanted more

Eye for an eye

You would risk it all for my blessing

Look at what I did with my blessing

I was doing better 'til I wanted more

All of the glory

All of the weight of the world

On my shoulders crashing down on me

But I want more, I want more
