

Seventeen

Keshi

You are something I want
You take, take me away, my baby

I'm sorry if everything is crazy
I don't know what's happened to me lately
Now I'm getting older and it makes me
Think of how it used to be so easy

We were only seventeen, yeah
You were lying next to me, yeah
I just wanted you to know that
I was young and in control, yeah
Everything was easier and yeah
Never knew what feelings were, yeah
Used to be just make-believe, yeah
Now I'm faded in the corner
Yeah-yeah-yeah

You are something I want
You take, take me away, my baby

We were only seventeen, yeah
You were lying next to me, yeah
I just wanted you to know that
I was young and in control, yeah
Everything was easier and yeah
Never knew what feelings were, yeah
Used to be just make-believe, yeah
Now I'm faded in the corner
Yeah-yeah-yeah
