

Harmless

Keshia Chanté

It's too much, it's too much
It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah, yeah

It's too much, it's too much
It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah, yeah

I've been sober way too long
Even though my glass is half full
Depends on the way that you look at it
I've been hidin' from a reflection

It's too much, it's too much
It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah, yeah

It's too much, it's too much
It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah, yeah

Know you tryna break down these walls
But I've been down this road before
Birds are with my heart still livin'
And this time I just wanna make it out alive
Out alive

Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah

It's too much, it's too much
It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah

It doesn't hurt
It's not gonna hurt
Why does it hurt?
This just won't work , no, no, no, no

It's too much, it's too much

It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah, yeah

It's too much, it's too much
It's not enough
Doesn't matter, it's harmless
It won't hurt you, I promise, promise
It's harmless
It's harmless, yeah, yeah

It's too much, it's too much
