Mixing skittles with some lemonade
 Poppin' pills with her minute-maid
 Eyes low as the minutes fade
 As the minutes fade (fade)
 Here we go, here we go
 300 dollars of her dough, of her dough
 Spending just so she can blow, she can blow
 All that snow fills her nose
 All that snow makes her croak

She a little bad thing I just met
 Daddy slang straight through the projects
 She don't really talk a lot, but she pop a lot
 Roll one, search for a xanax
 House is such a goddamn mess, coke and rum will make her feel blessed
 Walking out the crib half dressed
 Ah yes, I guess this bitch done lost her mind again
 We can make it work, we can mix sex with the church
 Keep her hands straight in the dirt, little baby from the burbs
 Keep herself all in my world, I don't even love her that much
 I love myself, is what she yelling
 I can't be in love with addict
 Get up out my face please lady
 Before I second guess my actions, yea

I'm in love with a bitch
 Who is addicted to some shit
 That will kill her before she 27
