

I can't focus when you're around
I just thought I should tell you, baby
I know I need you around, need you around
And I don't wanna have to take nothin' back
I wish there was somethin', like knowin' you were a bad person
It would make things way easier for me
But it is what it is, I don't want no kids
I wanna be found, I wanna be good
I wanna be so motherfuckin' great
Baby, I, baby, I

Ooh, her man now and too
Ooh, bring me to the truth
Ooh, her man now and too (Her man now and too, now and too)
Ooh, bring me to the truth (Bring me to the truth, man, bring me to the truth)

And I, lil' boy, don't got no more stations
And every weekend when we meet, it makes me wonder

If I got too much patience
I'll stop and wait for you
Yeah, I'll stop and, I'll stop and
I'll stop and wait for you
Yeah, I'll stop and, I'll stop and
I'm tired of waitin' for you
Oh, I'm stoppin', I'm stoppin'
I'll stop and wait for you
You don't know how tired I'm waitin' for you

Wake me up from this honey
For some reason it keeps happenin' to me in all different types of ways
Everywhere I go
Wake me up, from this moment

Ooh, her man now and too
Ooh, bring me to the truth
Ooh, her man now and too (Her man now and too, now and too)
Ooh, bring me to the truth (Bring me to the truth, man, bring me to the truth)
