

Cry

Kevin Abstract

I ain't got nobody, nobody else proud of me
Standin on my own two, my parents still ain't proud of me
Rich as hell I wanna be, money gon' be the death of me
Celebrate my flaws and all them lil niggas laugh at me
Did it on my own so I got no momma house
All the lame ass niggas still they stood at they momma's house
Damn nigga you like that shit, that them white boys like
And it got more weird when they saw them white boys in my life

Saw you lived around here
Get you to come over here
Will you notice me?

I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, you hurt my heart dude
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, just so that you know

Bring some change and hide some like

Told you not to start a lot
Turn around and start a riot
Boys like cats and [?]
Started doin' drugs and that

Why you stay at the house with me?
Why you stay at the house with me, house with me, house with me, house with me?

Me, Ameer, and Merlyn in the Woodlands were so excited, see
Young black niggas, who listen to a lotta Radiohead
All the niggas talkin' shit and them niggas is at your head
If them niggas 'bout it, I'm proud to see all that money fall
Wish a nigga try me, I swear to god I say fuck 'em all
Niggas jammin' Odd Future I ain't 'gramming them good times
Niggas like me and my mama only on a good time
Money change your life and nigga that's why I'm still the same

I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, you hurt my heart dude
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, just so that you know

I ain't got nobody, nobody who is proud of me
Standin' on my own two, my parents still ain't proud of me
Rich as I wanna be, money gon' be the death of me
Celebrate my flaws and all them other niggas laughed at me
Did it on my own so I got no momma house
All the lame ass niggas still they stood at they momma's house

Damn nigga you like that shit
Damn them white boys like
Then it got more weird when they saw them white boys in my life
Damn ain't no city lights yeah
Dying like my mom yeah
I saw you left behind yeah
Can you tell me, oh yeah
Do you notice me yeah
I just wanna feel your touch
I just wanna taste the air
And it never really change 'til you make it though
It never really change 'til you make it though
I'm obsessed with being so safe, sacred
It's over [?]

I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, you hurt my heart dude
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, just so that you know

So bad for me, bad for me
Chats are the death of me, death of me

Call it certainty, certainty
No it's not certainty, certainty
I was like seventeen, seventeen
Still ain't fuck with me, fuck with me
Sun on light, Saturday, stay with me
Sun on light, Saturday, stay with me

I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, you hurt my heart dude
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, just so that you know
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, you hurt my heart dude
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, just so that you know
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
I cry 'cause I don't know who I am
You hurt my heart dude, you hurt my heart dude
