Maroon

Kevin Abstract

I got too much adrenaline to lean and rock in the club with you
Swear to God we pick 'em up like someone dropped them W's
Some come easy, some don't, but when I'm completely alone
I can feel it coming
I can see it coming
I used to bag up rocks in the kitchen, man
I used to wear rags to elementary
I used to get laughed at, dog, oh
Sounded like a laugh track, dog, yeah
I can feel it coming
I can see it coming

I tell 'em easy we does it, does it look different when
I drop down my wall and get intimate?
Or do you like
When I call you up and say what's up and barely tell you what I'm thinking?
Can you tell the way I'm speaking ain't the same it was last weekend? Oh

Remember back when I could turn your face maroon? (I do)
Back when there was only space for two? (I do)
Remember back when we ain't had no nada? (Do you?)
Yeah, back when we ain't have no problems? (Do you?)

Au revoir, goodbye, so long, farewell
Au revoir, goodbye, so long, farewell
Au revoir, goodbye, so long, farewell
Au revoir, goodbye, so long, farewell

Remember back when I could turn your face maroon? (I do)
Back when there was only space for two? (I do)
Remember back when we ain't had no nada? (Do you?)
Yeah, back when we ain't have no problems? (Do you?)

Okay, I used to take the bus home, I used to have a crush on you
You ain't have to keep it so cut-throat, did you?
You done grown up and grown into your once uncomfortable skin
Baby, you ain't gotta hold all that (Uh-uh)
Baby, you ain't gotta hold all that (Uh-uh)
Baby, you ain't gotta hold all that in

Would it be easy to love me if I was different
But meant the same to you like a synonym
Or was similar?
If so, then fuck it, let's meet up and get to kissing and then touching
You remember back when I could make you blush and it was us against the rest

Remember back when I could turn your face maroon? (I do)
Back when there was only space for two? (I do)
Remember back when we ain't had no nada? (Do you?)
Yeah, back when we ain't have no problems? (Do you?)

Remember back when I could turn your face maroon? (I do)
Back when there was only space for two? (I do)
Remember back when we ain't had no nada? (Do you?)
Yeah, back when we ain't have no problems? (Do you?)
