

Post Break Up Beauty

Kevin Abstract

Talking about my past
You're talking about my past and you acting like I don't got th at shit tatted on me too
Like, you talking stupid, bro
You're really, you're talking crazy

I wanna feel like no one can touch us
I wanna feel how we did in the summer
Not avoiding something
Just used to nothing
I wanna live in the early stages

That post-breakup beauty looks perfect on you
Give it some time
Life is alright
That post-breakup beauty looks perfect on you
Give it some time
Life is alright

And when I met you
Everything about it felt like a December
And in the winter, that's when I'm centered
That's when I realized I forgot to remember
How in September, that's when it ended
That's when I realized that shit was all a setup
You changed the get-up, you changed the weather
You changed everything but never for the better, yeah, yeah, ye ah

Ooh, I'll take it all away
But you want it back
Ooh, it's gonna be alright
Just give it some time

I wanna feel like no one can touch us
I wanna feel how we did in the summer
Not avoiding something
Just used to nothing
I wanna live in the early stages

That post-breakup beauty looks perfect on you
Give it some time
Life is alright
That post-breakup beauty looks perfect on you
Give it some time
Life is alright
