

Nothing Funnier Than a Fart

Kevin Bloody Wilson

We were bathin' our twin grandsons, they were only six months old,
We towled 'em down and powdered 'em up when one of 'em let one go,
And with a puff'a baby powder, and a twinkle in his eye,
He turned to his little brother as if to say, "How clever am I?"

Nothin' funnier than a fart, nothin' like a fart to get you laughin',
And the more laughed, the more he farted Ones pissin' 'emselves one's little ring barkin', nothin' funnier than a fart.

And when they grow up they'll be like normal kids and learn to swap farts at school,
Where he who farts the loudest is considered pretty cool,
Just the sound of a fart from under your arm'll have a class full'a kids in fits,
Stampedin' towards the window, just in case it stinks.

Nothin' funnier than a fart, nothin' like a fart to get you laughin'
And the more you laugh, the more you fart
But them silent ones still got the bastards, Nothin' funnier than a fart.

Even fartin' on your own can be good fun, particularly of you're sittin' in the bath, Capturin' the bubbles in your two cupped hands while you try and sniff your own farts, Hmm smells like last night's pizza, mixed with lunchtime's beer and chips,
But to anybody else's untrained nose it smells like shit.

Or fartin' competitions with the missus, hahaha, we've all done that,
Layin' naked in bed with a blanket on your head, fartin' tit for tat,
'Til you squeeze out a fartin' gravy, and you're thinkin', Jesus Christ, Then you nudge your missus say come love it's half-time swap sides.

Or an ol' bloke sittin' in an ol' folks home can't trust a sneeze no more,
Bound to trigger the try factor, snot piss and shit and all,
But you can see him chucklin' himself, hahaha, 'cause he couldn't give a fuck,
Don't matter if he farts and shits himself someone else has gotta clean it up.

Nothin' funnier than a fart, nothin' like a fart to get you laughin',
And the more you laugh, the more you fart
A simple sneeze'll start a shit tsunami, nothin' funnier than a fart.

So there you go from 'go' to 'whoa', fartin's a part'a life, Even the pope and the queen and Kylie Monogue all gotta fart sometimes,
So rebus this day'a our daily gas and thank you God for the laughs, Proves you got a sense'a humor I reckon.

Nothin' funnier than a fart, nothin' like a fart to get you laughin',
And the more you laugh, the more you fart,
God give you that gas to just blow it out your ass

And if you wanna show off, try lightin' the bastard, nothin' funnier than a fart.

Nothin' funnier than a fart.

Nothin' funnier than a fart.
