

Heaven's Gate

Kevin Costner & Modern West

Morning brings a gentle rain
Wash all sins of yesterday
Forgiveness comes to those who pray
When you're on the road to Heaven's gate

You can wander high, you wonder low
Beware of the devil, for he'll steal your soul
Tempt you with doubt and test your faith
To keep you out of Heaven's gate

What once was lost can still be found
After the storm, light will shine down
To bring us peace and guide the way
Over the hill, towards Heaven's gate

Two rivers wind, and where they meet
Is a dark and lonely place to be
Stay the course and trust in fate
Around the bend is Heaven's gate

We're all searching for the key
And it's right there for us to see
Our mothers prayed we'd find our way
And our hearts would fly through Heaven's gate