

Heavy Like The Rain

Kevin Costner & Modern West

I pick myself up and I run
Towards the only light I see
Try to stay between the lines
Before it catches up with me
Before it catches up with me

I hear a restless in the night
And it's calling out for me
Like a prison full of ghosts
And it just won't let me be
Just won't let me be

And I'm so tired
Trying to find a way
But trouble keeps falling
Heavy like the rain
Heavy like the rain

I've scattered chances like the dust
And they're everywhere I turn
Regrets twisting in my mind
Oh, will I ever learn?
Will I ever learn?

And I'm so tired
Trying to find a way
But trouble keeps falling
Heavy like the rain
Heavy like the rain

And I'm so tired
Trying to find a way
But trouble keeps coming
Heavy like the rain
Heavy like the rain
Ah, heavy like the rain

Heavy like the rain
Heavy like the rain
