

I Believe In Love

Coyne, Kevin

Heaven is here - so sharp Lightning up that awful dark Building dreams that are turning real - oh so real

Dark days creep away I'm on the road to Mandalay One hug and kiss and I begin to fall down

In silent prayer

Honey I believe in love (3x) Believe in love (2x)

I was so lonely all the time Now I've found words that rhyme No cliches, I'm running wild

I'm a poet I can sing better than before The black dog has left my door Hear my voice searing through the clouds And high unto hills

Honey I believe in love (3x) Believe in love (x2 Honey I believe in love (3x) Believe in love, believe in love

Honey honey honey I believe in love (2x) Honey I believe in love Believe in love (2x)

Honey I believe in love
