

Soon

Coyne, Kevin

Well, soon, it's gonna be summer, baby, soon
Soon, we'll feel the summer winds, yeah
We'll have the sun gleaming on our brown backs, baby
Soon, honey, honey, soon

Soon, they'll be no winter, baby
No frost and snow, no cold ice
We'll have the sun beating on our brown backs, baby
I said soon, baby, baby, soon

Soon, I'm gonna see you smiling, darling
Wearing your pink just like you did one summer before, before
You know I feel so lazy, baby, I wanna kiss you, honey
Soon, baby, baby, soon

Oh, summer's here, baby
What more can a good man want?
Oh, summer's here, baby
Laugh at me, baby, I don't care

'Cause soon, you're going to be beaming, baby
Soon, you're gonna be red and brown
You're gonna smile for me just like you smiled before
Oh, I know you will, baby soon, little baby, soon

Soon, it's gonna be summer, baby
You know soon, we're gonna be so happy, baby
We're gonna dance on the beach
Even out of reach

Come here, baby
Let me teach you that
Soon, soon, baby, soon

Soon, soon, baby, soon
Everybody's going to sing
Every bell's going to ring

Oh yes, we're so happy
Everybody's snappy and I love you
And we all are laughing
Baby, soon, baby, baby, soon
