

The Only One

Coyne, Kevin

Are you lost in the wilderness?
Are you crying on your won?
Are you stabbing into the sunlight?
When all the heat has gone
You're not the only one (2x)
You're not the only one to be alone
You're not the only one (2x)

You're not the only one to be alone, alone
Are you crying into your pillow?
Does the bed seems like a rock of ice?
Are you feeling kind of personal?
But there's no-one there to be nice

You're not the only one (2x)
You're not the only one on your own
You're not the only one (2x)

You're not the only one to be alone, alone
But there's hope in the future
All roads will slowly unwind
If you hold out your tiny hands
And open up your savage mind

You're not the only one (2x)
You're not the only one to be alone
You're not the only one (2x)
You're not the only one to be alone, who is on his own, who is on her won
