

If We Meet Today

Kevin Devine

Do you know how ridiculous you sound
When you say you might be in love with me
But not cause I want you to?

I've got to stop coming around here
You never seem to know what's best for me
At least not when I want you to

If we meet today
Promise that you'll stay awake
Long enough to hear me say
"Let's go to sleep"

Do you know how scared I am
Of the bottom dropping out?
You're breaking through to me
But not cause I want you to
