

Habit I Can't Break

Kevin Fowler

Use to smoke two packs on day, hardest thing to put away
Use to drink more then I should,
Finally give it up for good
But I still love the taste of gin
So many thing I finally quit
There's one habit I can't kick
She'll call and I start thinking
Back slain know I'm seaking
Back again, back that road
I know I shouldn't go
Giving to one more last time
Can't resist and all it's trap
There's one thing I just can't shake
She's one habit I can't break
I never know it and I make I list
Of solution to find to quit
Never know it's the best
I walk ém off one by one
And when I think I finally done
There's one that always lived
One last breath I just can';t burn
She's one lesson I can't learn
She'll call and I start thinking
Back slain know I'm seaking
Back again, back that road
I know I shouldn't go
Giving to one more last time
Can't resist and all it's trap
There's one thing I just can't shake
She's one habit I can't break
She'll call and I start thinking
Back slain know I'm seaking
Back again, back that road
I know I shouldn't go
Giving to one more last time
Can't resist and all it's trap
There's one thing I just can't shake
She's one habit I can't break
