

Hell Yeah, I Like Beer

Kevin Fowler

She was alone at a table for two
I said, now's the time to make my move
So I got me a beer and I bought her a sex on the beach
She saw that umbrella stuck in the glass
That chunk of pineapple made her laugh
She took the beer from my hand and said thank you, man
I didn't take her for the longneck kind
She said boy have you lost your mind?

Hell yeah, I like beer
It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
Not just every now and then
I'm talking 365 days a year
I can do it around the clock
I don't like it just a little, oh I like it a lot
Even hot, hell yeah, I like beer

Ooh, I love it

Yeah, it's good for your heart, it's good for your mind
It's good for gettin' through a lonely all night
Everybody knows you shouldn't drink too much
So why's it always seem like it's never enough

Hell yeah, I like beer
It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
Not just every now and then
I'm talking 365 days a year
I can do it around the clock
I don't like it just a little, oh I like it a lot
Even hot, hell yeah, I like beer

Everybody now, come one!

Hell yeah, I like beer
It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
Not just every now and then
I'm talking 365 days a year
I can do it around the clock
I don't like it just a little, oh I like it a lot
Even hot, hell yeah, I like beer
Hell yeah, hell yeah I like beer

Oh, yes I do
Hell yeah, hell yeah I like beer
