

Joe Sure Knows How To Live

Kevin Fowler

Blue Monday morning at the factory gate
It's almost time to clock in
The boys were all bettin' that Joe wouldn't show
Cause they'd seen him over the weekend
He had four new tires on that old Cadillac
Betty the waitress and some clothes in the back
Dashboard full of roadmaps of Mexico
Joe knows how to live

He said women are made to love
Money is made to spend
Life is something buddy
You will never live again
Oh, I've got to admit it
Joe sure knows how to live

By now they'll be down at the ocean
He and Betty stretched out somewhere
The only blue in his life is the blue moonlight
Bouncin' off Betty's blonde hair
Oh, and I can just see them rolling 'round on the sand
I never thought I was a jealous man
But when I think what he's doin' and what I am not
Oh, I'm jealous a lot

He said women are made to love
Money is made to spend
Life is something buddy
You will never live again
Oh, I've got to admit it
Joe sure knows how to live

Now Betty's back home with her mother
Joe's back on the assembly line
But he brings in his pictures and his Mexican hat
Just to remind us sometimes

That women are made to love
And money is made to spend
Life is something buddy
You will never live again
Oh, I've got to admit it
Joe sure knows how to live
Yeah, I hate to admit it
Joe sure knows how to live
He knows how to live