

Penny For Your Thoughts

Penny For Your Thoughts By Kevin Fowler

Some folks put a price on everything
Cause nothin' in life comes for free
Well love don't cost money, just hard work and time
You've got to give if you want to receive

I'd give a penny for your thoughts
The world for one kiss
Give my life for your love
Give it all for one wish
I would buy you the moon
And the stars up above
I could you buy most anything
But I can't buy your love

When it comes to love and money
It seems the two go hand in hand
At least that's what they say
About love these days
I just don't understand
Yes I'd be a heathen if I were to believe
She could love me for who I am
I'd give it all away just to hear her say
I love my poor man

Chorus

Chorus

I would buy you the moon
And the stars up above
I could you buy most anything
But I can't buy your love
