

Tall Drink Of Water

Kevin Fowler

First time I saw her she came through them swingin' doors
She was dancin' like a demon runnin' on golden floor
Looked just like an angel but she had a devil's smile
And a body hot as southern rock, long hair and Texas smile.

She's a Tall Drink Of Water yeah she's long and lean
And her, momma sure taught her how to sway and how to swing
There ain't no man alive I know who's ever claimed to court h-e-r
These poor lips could sure use a drink of that
T-all Tall Drink Of Water.

Well I've had girls too skinny yeah some were too thick
Some tiny as a button and some build like a stick
Well I ain't nothin' against them girls Lord I love them all
Well there ain't one there that I can compare to that Long legged southern doll.

[Chorus: X3]
