

Stranglehold

Kevin Garrett

You think the ball is in your court
I threw it out days before, yeah
My anger rises from within
And this seat is fast and volcanic, yeah

Why is this love such a shame and so tamed?
Stranglehold on my heart, I feel the same
Let me go far away
So I'll never miss you one more day
And never miss another thing

She knows me more than I'll admit
Within my mask is paper thin, yeah
I'll hurry through within get hurt
And your worry it only gets worse, yeah

Why is this love such a shame and so tamed?
Stranglehold on my heart, I feel the same
Let me go far away
So I'll never miss you one more day
And never miss another thing, no, no, no

What's this flame I came across?
And no one could ever turn it off
Blow it all up no one will know
You think you know me, but you don't
You think the ball is in your court
You think the ball is in your court
You think the ball is in your court
You think the ball is in your court

Why is this love such a shame and so tamed?
Stranglehold on my heart, I feel the same
Let me go far away
So I'll never miss you one more day
And never miss another thing
And never miss you one more day
And never miss another thing
