

Disappoint Me

Kevin Gates

(Yung Lan on the track)
(Hundred bands for a Kilo, nigga)

Knowing I'm dope, keeping it how it went in how I got my extras
Back against the rope, developed thick skin, I can't knock my lessons
Won't fuck her friend, don't operate out of revenge, I can't block my blessings
Keeping it real, everyone 'round pretend, now I got my blessings
Hurt so many times, I can't be hurt no more
You can't hurt me, you can only disappoint me
Hurt so many times, I can't be hurt no more
You can't hurt me, you can only disappoint me

Ball (Ball), like I seen it all (I have)
Know it look like I made it out, feel like I made it out, it don't Ayy, sweet life get hard, you know (You know)
'Til you understand, you don't (You don't)
Sippin' lean, we spin, count up, sin, now all your friends gone
All my friends is blue (Yeah), some say this world is cold (It's low)
Ain't nothing to tell them go, I crack a seal, then tell 'em slow (Slow)
Only God can tell me no (Huh)
Won't pretend, it's on the floor
Kinda sad he sweat for bro
See, when it's me, you never know
'Cause in these world, you never know
With diamonds, I'm still clever, though
See, fuck a speech, I never spoke
All this shit I never wrote (Ayy)
Now money come in envelopes
I was broke, but didn't break
See, this shit in and outta state
Watch me beat the interstate (Skrtrt)

Knowing I'm dope, keeping it how it went in how I got my extras
Back against the rope, developed thick skin, I can't knock my lessons
Won't fuck her friend, don't operate out of revenge, I can't block my blessings
Keeping it real, everyone 'round pretend, now I got my blessings
Hurt so many times, I can't be hurt no more
You can't hurt me, you can only disappoint me
Hurt so many times, I can't be hurt no more
You can't hurt me, you can only disappoint me

Like my feelings confiscated
Though I gave it perfect effort
Highly favored, know I'm special
Releasing traumas, working at it
Staying away from people for my protection seem to be working better
World not worthy of my presence, conversation surface level (Gone)
Never put trust in a bitch mama, she gon' always side with her
When you treat this bitch like a real mama, deep down inside, it hurt
When you love yourself, your eyes got opened, you see they bet against you
When you not happy, it go unnoticed when they benefitin'
No surrender, no retreat, we gotta stand on business
Don't let 'em trick you, they tend to miss you when you been official
I made mistakes, the wrong idea was did with good intentions
Used that against me, they tend to miss you when you been official

Knowing I'm dope, keeping it how it went in how I got my extras
Back against the rope, developed thick skin, I can't knock my lessons
Won't fuck her friend, don't operate out of revenge, I can't block my blessings
Keeping it real, everyone 'round pretend, now I got my blessings
Hurt so many times, I can't be hurt no more
You can't hurt me, you can only disappoint me
Hurt so many times, I can't be hurt no more
You can't hurt me, you can only disappoint me
